

Redemption for the Rebellious Heart
God's Plan of Redemption
Genesis 11:1-9
October 23, 2022

Life Group Discussion Questions
Week of October 23, 2022

- I. The Constant Issue of Humanity: A Rebellious Heart (1-4)
 - A. God had given a specific command.—Gen. 1:28; 9:1
 - Be fruitful and multiply
 - Fill the earth and subdue it
 - B. Humanity wanted to recreate its purpose (4)
 - They wanted to settle
 - They wanted to recreate their name
- II. A Merciful God Issues Judgement (5-9)
 - A. God came down (5)
 - B. God honored his covenant—Gen. 9:11
 - C. God uses confusion to accomplish His purpose (7-9)
- III. Babel stands as a monument to our rebellious nature—Rom. 3:10-12
- IV. God's redemption at Pentecost brings peace to humanity—Acts 2
 - A. God's indwelling Spirit reverses the curse of Babel.
 - B. The Gospel is what redeems the rebellious heart.
 - C. God uses nations to stay evil, but chose one to bring peace.
- V. Thoughts and Questions for Later.

Read Genesis 11:1-9 together.

- 1. What does the punishment of Babel reveal about the nature of God?*
- 2. What are some ways we see the rebellious heart of humanity in society?*
- 3. How does the gospel bring peace to the rebellion of society?*
- 4. What are some ways we see that rebellion in our own hearts?*
- 5. How does the Gospel bring peace to the rebellion in our own lives?*

How can we pray for you this week?