OVERVIEW

SLAYING GIANTS: THE LIFE OF DAVID

A Redemption Sermon Series (May 10-31)

From David's interactions and relationships with Goliath, Saul, and Bathsheba to how David points toward the eternal king, Jesus, this series will examine how God slays giants in our lives — giants like revenge, boredom, and shame.

Digital Gatherings will be available every Sunday morning, as early as 6 a.m. EDT, via Facebook, YouTube, and the Redemption app.

SCRIPTURE

2 Samuel 11:1-27, Psalm 51:1-7

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. David had different seasons in life. Seasons of waiting, seasons of success, and seasons of struggle. How would you describe your current season of life?
2. How have you seen boredom and a lack of accountability lead to destruction? How have you seen this take place with kids, students, and adults? What can we do to prevent this from happening?
3. If what you're doing does not align with God's purposes, it eventually gets boring. So what are you contributing to that serves God's purposes?
4. David went through a progression we can easily fall into: Complacency leads to boredom. Boredom leads to sin. Sin leads to secrecy. Secrecy leads to shame. Have you experienced any stage of this progression in your own life?
5. Without a mission or something to fight for, we are ripe for failure. What mission or fight is God calling you to engage in?
6. Uriah died because of David's sin. This helped wake David up. Jesus died for your sin. How does this truth help wake you up and call you closer to God?
