

CONNECT QUESTIONS

- 1) Thinking about this week, how was God at work in your life? Is there some way we can pray for you?
- 2) Last week, we were asked to take a faithful “next step” in our relationships. What did that look like for you?
- 3) Read the passage and reflect on the sermon from Sunday. What stands out to you?
- 4) Why is it important for us to remember that grace is a free gift: not something we can earn?
- 5) Paul describes grace as a teacher that “instructs” us? How is God’s grace meant to transform us?
- 6) Christian martyr Deitrich Bonhoeffer described “costly grace” as grace that calls us to follow Jesus. Why can following Jesus sometimes feel costly?
- 7) Have you ever experienced a time when following Jesus cost you something but ultimately produced something good in you? What happened?
- 8) Read verse 12 again. Is there an area of your life that God is calling you to change in order to better follow Jesus? How can you begin doing that this week?
- 9) Close in prayer together.

Memory Passage

“Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies.”
— 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 (NIV)

Titus 2:11-15 (NASB)

¹¹For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, ¹²instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age, ¹³looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus, ¹⁴who gave Himself for us to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds. ¹⁵These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.
