

CONNECT QUESTIONS

- 1) Last week we tried to lay down our identity-idols. How did that change how you lived this week?
- 2) Read the passages and reflect on the sermon from Sunday. What stands out to you?
- 3) How does our identity as children of God change the way we parent, work, play, etc.?
- 4) How have you “matured” in Christ? Where do you still need to grow?
- 5) How might God want to use your unique gifts, strengths, and passions to “build up” the Body of Christ (the Church)? How can “build up” this group?
- 6) When you look at where God has placed you (physical location, relationships, workplace, etc.), who are you called to point toward Jesus?
- 7) What’s one thing you can do this week to use your God-given gifts to bless others? How can this group support you in doing that? Close in prayer, asking God to guide and bless this work.

Memory Passage

“For you were once darkness,
but now you are light in the Lord.
Live as children of light.”
— Ephesians 5:8 (NIV)

Ephesians 5:1-6, 11-16 (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. <sup>2</sup> Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. <sup>3</sup> Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup> There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; <sup>5</sup> one Lord, one faith, one baptism; <sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. . . .

<sup>11</sup> So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, <sup>12</sup> to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up <sup>13</sup> until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

<sup>14</sup> Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming.

<sup>15</sup> Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. <sup>16</sup> From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.
