1. Thinking about this week, how was God at work in your life? Is there some way we can pray for you?
2. Last week, we talked about taking responsibility and releasing control. How did you practice that this week? What was that like?
3. Read Genesis 3:21–24 and John 15:9–17 and reflect on the sermon from Sunday. What stands out to you?
4. God clothes Adam and Eve even as they face consequences. What does this show us about God? Why can it be difficult to recognize His grace when relationships are hurting?
5. Jesus calls us to remain in His love and love one another as He loves us. What helps you stay connected to Him? How does that shape the way you love others?
6. Sometimes loving someone requires us to listen and adjust to what they actually need. What can make that difficult? How might God be inviting you to practice that kind of love?
7. Where in your relationships are you asking, “Where do we go from here?” What is one faithful step you can take this week—an apology, an honest conversation, a healthy boundary, or an act of care?
8. Close in prayer: thank God for His faithful love. Ask Him to help us receive His grace, remain in His love, and take the next faithful step in our relationships.

Genesis 3:21-24

²¹ The Lord God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them. ²² And the Lord God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever.”

²³ So the Lord God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. ²⁴ After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

John 15:9-17

9 “As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. ¹⁰ If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commands and remain in his love. ¹¹ I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

¹² My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. ¹³ Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I command. ¹⁵ I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶ You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you.

¹⁷ This is my command: Love each other.
