

CONNECT QUESTIONS

- 2) On Sunday we talked about how formation is always happening. What tends to fill your attention during the week? How do you see that shaping you, for better or worse?
- 3) Read Romans 12:1-8 and reflect on the sermon from Sunday. What stands out to you?
- 4) The means of grace (prayer, Scripture, worship, communion, serving others, loving neighbors) help form us over time. Which of these feels most natural to you? Which feels hardest right now?
- 5) Spiritual growth can feel slow. Where have you seen small signs of growth in your life? Where do you still hope to grow?
- 6) How might God want to use your unique gifts, strengths, and passions to “build up” the Body of Christ (the Church)? How can you “build up” this connect group?
- 7) We were reminded that transformation is not meant to happen alone. How has community helped shape your faith? How can this group better support one another in practicing faith?

Romans 12:1-8 (NIV)

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. 2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

3 For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. 4 For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, 5 so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. 6 We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophecy in accordance with your[a] faith; 7 if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; 8 if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.
