

CONNECT QUESTIONS

- 1) Thinking about this week, what is something you are thankful for or something you would like prayer for?
- 2) Read the passage and reflect on the sermon from Sunday. God's love is shown in action (He gave) rather than emotion. What does this tell us about the nature of love?
- 3) Read 1 Corinthians 13:1-8. Which aspect of love feels most challenging to live out in everyday life?
- 4) John 3:19–21 suggests that love sometimes exposes things in us. What might prevent us from fully loving others?
- 5) Are there people in your ordinary life that you have failed to intentionally love lately? Take a moment to ask God: "Who is one person You want me to show intentional love to this week?"
- 6) How can we (the church family) make love more visible together than we can individually?
- 7) How can this group pray for one another to live out love in ordinary, tangible ways this week?

John 3:16-21 (NIV)

16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. 18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son. 19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done in the sight of God.
