

Biblical Ethics

Sexual Ethics Part 3: “The Coming Collapse”

Dr. Andrew T. Walker

February 25, 2024
Adult Sunday School
Lewis Lake Covenant Church

The Coming Collapse

Sexual confusion and sexual disorder is _____

The Christian sexual ethic testifies to _____ for
_____.

How our world thinks about sexuality:

1. _____ is the only moral guardrail.
2. Sexual acts in themselves have no moral _____ or
_____.
3. Sexuality is a function of _____ - a failure to be faithful to your self-understood identity is a failure to be _____.

“The Genesis Blueprint”

Gen 1:26-28

1. God creates humanity _____
2. God creates humanity _____
3. God creates males and females _____

“Marriage is an _____ of male and female who, coming together, become something _____.”

How the gospel informs our understanding of sex and gender.

1. The gospel does not _____ but _____ the creation order and offers a pathway to live lives of _____ (Matt 19:4-6; 1 Cor 6:12-20).
2. God’s design for sex is for _____ and for _____.

Action Steps

1. Recognize that being faithful to Gods creation order is _____.
2. We need to be prepared for the sexual revolution’s _____.
3. We have to give reasons for our convictions with _____ and _____ and _____.
4. Honor our _____ to seek our _____.

the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.

Genesis 2:25

