

Revelation 3:16, You are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold.

*That raises a question every church member needs to consider: Can a person be close enough to Christianity to look saved, sound saved, and feel saved—yet never actually know Jesus?

Revelation 3:14, "the one who is the Amen—the faithful and true witness."

I. God wants us to listen to The One who knows the truth about us. Revelation 3:14
Revelation 3:15–16, "I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other! But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth!"

II. God wants us to understand what Jesus means by "Lukewarm."
Revelation 3:14-16

Revelation 3:17, "You say, 'I am rich. I have everything I want. I don't need a thing!'"

III. God warns us that lukewarmness can look like success. Revelation 3:17

Revelation 3:17, You say, "I am rich; I have required wealth and do not need a thing." But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked.

Revelation 3:18, I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see.

IV. Jesus offers what money cannot buy! Revelation 3:18

Revelation 3:19, "I correct and discipline everyone I love."

V. God reminds us that discipline is evidence of His love. Revelation 3:19

Revelation 3:19, So be diligent and turn from your indifference.

the churches." — Revelation 3:22

Revelation 3:20, Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in.

1. The question isn't whether Jesus is knocking. The question is: Will you open the door?

VI. God wants us to respond to Jesus knocking outside our door. Revelation 3:20

Revelation 3:20, ... if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.

VII. Jesus wants intimate fellowship, NOT empty religion. Revelation 3:20

Revelation 3:21-22, To the one who is victorious, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat down with my Father on His throne. 22 whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

VIII. God reminds us that there is VICTORY for the one who overcomes through Christ!
Revelation 3:21-22

"Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to
