

Discussion Questions:

What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?

When you encounter opposition to your faith, what is your immediate reaction?
Defensiveness? Prayer? Fear? Peace?

How does your response line up with what the Bible says to do?

What is one of the toughest obstacles you have encountered to living your faith in public? What did you do?

If you live in the Americas, consider how little opposition people of faith experience there, compared to elsewhere in the world. Could God be granting you freedom so that you might serve your brothers and sisters in Christ around the world who are not so fortunate? What is one practical step you could take toward that goal?

How can we pray for you?
