

Discussion Questions:

What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?

When you think of the messages of this world and of your life, which message do you think is most important?

What message does your life tell others is of the utmost importance?

Sometimes when we are in a spiritual desert, we can be tempted to believe things that are not true. Paul tells the Galatians that no matter what happens or what they see, they must not waver from the truth of the gospel (1:8–9). How does that word of advice help you with spiritual deserts you've been in in the past or are in now?

When it comes to sharing the gospel, are you afraid of offending someone? How does Galatians 1:10 speak to that fear for you?

How can we pray for you?
