

Discussion Questions:

What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?

What did you think of the story about Joshua Edwards in Columbus, Ohio? Explain your answers.

Did you feel convicted by it, or did you find it easy to judge the various homeowners who wouldn't open their door to help?

How are we any different when we drive or walk by someone who is in need of help?

In what way is your faith expressing itself through actions? What are some specific actions in your life that are a result of your faith?

How can we pray for you?