

Questions To Consider

We all face temptation; how can we effectively resist Satan's temptations in our lives and live in obedience to God?

Community and fellowship can be a vital weapon in overcoming temptation. How can we help each other in the battles we face?

When we sin, shame and guilt seek to overtake us. How do we overcome shame and guilt? How do we resist the urge to hide and blame?

When we fail and sin, God continues to pursue us. This represents the never-ending love and grace of God at work. Practically speaking, how does God want us to respond to our sin as his children? Is this typically way you react? Why or why not?

How can I pray for you?
