

When He Comes (1 Thessalonians 2:17-3:8)

Let's talk about hope. We may live in a broken and messed up world, but we have hope knowing one day Jesus will return to make all things new again. Consider joining us for church online – Saturdays at 7pm & Sunday at 10am.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. [ICEBREAKER] What is one thing you look forward to this week?
2. What resonated with you the most about this week's sermon? Why?
3. What might separate someone experiencing suffering, persecution, or trouble from those around them? What do you believe is the hardest part about going through trials of any kind?
4. What does the act of encouragement look like to you? How do you react to encouragement? How might your talents or skills allow you to encourage others?
5. [HOMEWORK] Who can you encourage this week? Will you write a note, make a call, or reach out to them virtually? In what way can interacting with others encourage you?

MOVING FORWARD

What will you do with what God gave you?

“Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith.”
—1 Thessalonians 3:7 (NIV)
