

Unexpected Interruptions

Week 2: Too Soon

(Luke 1:26-38)

When our "everyday things" get interrupted, our lives are the most affected. This year has been full of unexpected interruptions, but God has a pattern of using interruptions for a greater purpose! What if God is trying to interrupt your "normal" this year to do something EXTRAORDINARY??

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. [ICEBREAKER] What's your favorite holiday tradition?
2. Do you think an unexpected interruption by itself results in change? Or does the person being interrupted have to make a choice for change to take place? Why?
3. Why do you think trust is hard? What's different about trusting God versus trusting your family or friends? What might be similar?
4. Timing can be defined as the ability to select the precise moment for doing something for optimum effect.¹ How do you think a person's perspective (or past experience) can affect their understanding of God's timing?
5. During this season, we all have learned something new that has helped us understand ourselves and others. What have you learned?

MOVING FORWARD

Do you trust that God sees more than you see?

"For no word from God will ever fail."
