Four key themes:

Sent, From Heaven, From God

Bread, Flesh, Drink

Believes, Eats/Feeds on, Drinks

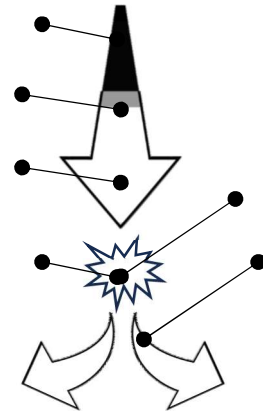

Eternal Life, Life, Raised Up, Not Die

G _____

JESUS

B _____

L _____

“Unless you eat . . . drink”

- We must appropriate Jesus _____ into our inmost being.
- We must eat His flesh by _____ in His death for the sins of humankind.
- We must drink His blood by _____ in His substitutionary atoning death through the shedding of His blood.
- We must completely _____ Jesus.
- Taste-testing, nibbling, and the like are expressions of half-hearted commitment. They are _____!

When we walk away from Jesus, we believe . . .

- we can find _____ in someone or something else.
- that the _____ that we can do on our own are the works of God.

Where do we find our LIFE?

- Is it only in _____, through _____, the Bread of Life sent from heaven? (See Colossians 3:2-4)

Do we grasp that the work of God is to _____ on the One He Sent.

- This is _____ the work of God, from our first decision to believe to our last.

WILL I BELIEVE JESUS IS MY LIFE?

- Will I believe He is _____?
- Will I believe He is _____ my righteousness?
- Will I believe His grace will be _____ so I can extend forgiveness and serve as a slave with little or no recognition?
