

RESURRECTION BODIES! (1 Corinthians 15:35-58)

- helping us be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord

perishable	IMPERISHABLE
dishonor	GLORY
weakness	POWER
natural	SPIRITUAL
mortal	IMMORTAL

OUR RESURRECTION BODIES WILL . . .

- have CONTINUITY & _____ with our present bodies (cf. seeds),
- be _____ for their environment (cf. the kinds of "bodies"),
- be _____,
- _____ be transformed,
- be transformed _____.

OUR RESURRECTION WILL MARK . . .

- that death has been _____ in Christ's victory,
- that Christ's death on the cross has defeated the penalty, the power, and the _____ of _____ and death!

THREE QUESTIONS:

4. Are we too attached to the here and now? Are we imagining that this is our "best life?"
5. Are we merely "natural" people, or have we become "spiritual" people?
6. Are we listening for the trumpet of Christ's victorious return and our transformation or are we hoping Jesus delays a bit longer?
