Zeal . . . it can be such a good thing.

- We know that zeal for God's house consumed Jesus.
- We know we are called to exercise our spiritual gifts with zeal.
- It is fun watching someone do something with zeal and spunk.

TR: But zeal can go so very wrong.

Romans 10:2

For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

ESV

The Apostle Paul says about the Jews of his day . . . READ SLIDE

TR: A zeal that is not according to knowledge will manifest itself in bi-polar believers.

-- When I speak of “bi-polar,” I am not seeking to minimize the challenge of dealing with the mental illness that goes by that name.

-- Rather, I’m speaking of our zeal that can be “bi-polar” – being extreme up or extreme down

-- . . . zealously going to one pole or the other.

-- My fear is that INSTEAD OF AUDITING THE PAIN of the time of the Judges, we are following their lead.

TR: We find ourselves easily drawn to being A YO-YO CHRISTIAN . . . riding the ups and downs of the . . .

... “right in our own eyes” faith of God’s people who lived in the centuries before about 1,000 BC . . .

The appendix begins and ends with the same words.
-- And the two accounts are punctuated with the repeated line

TR: Judges 19-21 shows us THREE MOVEMENTS common to yo-yo believers.

These movements fluctuate or vacillate between DOWN and then UP and then sometimes ALL TANGLED.

-- Though at the end of the book of Judges, the account of the civil war with the tribe of Benjamin is from a much earlier time.

TR: We know that this account is from an earlier time, near the beginning of the time of Judges, because . . .

Judges 20:27-28a

TR: THE FIRST MOVEMENT OF A YO-YO BELIEVER is seen in the throwing of the yo-yo . . .

11

... down ... “walking the dog” into the vomit of degeneration.

TR: Follow along as we hit the highlights, or perhaps better, THE LOWLIGHTS beginning in chapter 19 ...

In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite was sojourning in the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, who took to himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

12

READ SLIDE

- A concubine is a wife with certain rights, but she was often also a slave and her children would have no guaranteed inheritance rights.
- She is unfaithful to him . . . or perhaps “angry with him” (NET) and goes to her parent’s home
- After 4 months, the Levite goes to speak kindly to her and bring her back.
- The girl’s dad is thrilled to see the Levite and offers him incredible hospitality.
- This unrelenting hospitality explains why the Levite, with his concubine and servant, would leave so late in the day.

TR: A day’s journey was about 20 miles. You’d always leave in the morning since most major towns were about a day’s journey apart.

13

On a map, we see Bethlehem about 4-5 miles south of Jebus.

TR: As daylight was failing and travel became even more dangerous, the servant suggested spending the night in Jebus.

Judges 19:12

And his master said to him, “We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel, but we will pass on to Gibeah.”

14

READ SLIDE

-- It is ironic that the danger did not come from foreigners but from their own people.

TR: The account continues . . .

Judges 19:15b-16c

And he went in and sat down in the open square of the city, for no one took them into his house to spend the night. ¹⁶And behold, an old man was coming from his work in the field at evening. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was sojourning in Gibeah.

READ SLIDE

- A clear sign of apostasy was the lack of hospitality.
- There was no need to worry that it would be too costly, noting the loaded donkeys.
- The only one to offer hospitality was a newcomer himself.

TR: The man takes care of his guests and their animals and then the yo-yo goes down into the most vile, degraded behavior . . .

Judges 19:22

As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, worthless fellows, surrounded the house, beating on the door. And they said to the old man, the master of the house, “Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may know him.”

ESV

TR: You may remember this word from our study last winter in 2 Corinthians.

2 Corinthians 6:15

What accord has Christ with Belial?
Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever?

18

READ SLIDE

TR: The men of the city . . . seemingly the whole lot of them, want to have homosexual relations with the Levite.

Judges 19:23

And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brothers, do not act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, do not do this vile thing.

19

READ SLIDE

TR: Worried about the shame that would come to him as the host, he says something even more vile . . .

Judges 19:24

Behold, here are my virgin daughter and his concubine. Let me bring them out now. Violate them and do with them what seems good to you, but against this man do not do this outrageous thing."

READ SLIDE

-- No student of the Bible can miss the connection that is intended with Genesis 19's account of Sodom.

TR: But this time there would be no angels to rescue as they did Lot and his daughters.

Judges 19:25

But the men would not listen to him. So the (Levite) seized his concubine and made her go out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go.

ESV

- The traveling Levite doesn't seem to wait for an answer.
- Like throwing a piece of meat to a pack of ferocious dogs, he hopes to get them off his scent.
- Gang rape, with all its brutality would lead to her death on the doorstep.

TR: Gibeah is a town of . . .

22

... degenerates! A bunch of yo-yos.

TR: Hosea, a prophet who would minister at the end of the northern Kingdom, about 700 BC, would write ...

Hosea 9:9

They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity; he will punish their sins.

23

READ SLIDE

-- Hosea is using the town of Gibeah as a symbol of deep corruption.

TR: Hosea would add that the people had deeply corrupted themselves even . . .

Hosea 10:9

From the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel; there they have continued. Shall not the war against the unjust overtake them in Gibeah?

24

READ SLIDE

- Am I surprised with how DOWN IN THE DIRT professing believers can go?
- Not anymore.

TR: But the movements that make us yo-yo believers is not just about going down into degenerate behavior. It is also about . . .

25

... going up into over-reaction.

-- From "walking the dog" to doing an "around the world" (with a yo-yo).

TR: Look at how the Levite and then the people of Israel reacted . . . over-reacted!

And when (the Levite) entered his house, he took a knife, and taking hold of his concubine he divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

ESV

- After callously throwing her to the dogs and then expecting her to get up and get going . . .
- . . . this guy's yo-yo goes to the other pole.
- I don't know how he sent the parts, perhaps with messengers.
- Imagine if UPS or FEDEX delivered a box to you and it contained a severed head? Would that get your attention?

TR: The response was what the Levite wanted.

Judges 19:30

And all who saw it said, “Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day that the people of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day; consider it, take counsel, and speak.”

ESV

Judges 20:3b-4

And the people of Israel said, “Tell us, how did this evil happen?”⁴ And the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “I came to Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night.

TR: As we go on, look for what’s missing in his testimony and what is exaggerated.

Judges 20:5

And the leaders of Gibeah rose against me and surrounded the house against me by night. They meant to kill me, and they violated my concubine, and she is dead.

⁷Behold, you people of Israel, all of you, give your advice and counsel here.”

ESV

READ SLIDE

- The stated aim of the men of Gibeah was not to kill him but have sexual relations with him.
- And the part about the Levite seizing the concubine and throwing her to the pack somehow didn't make it to the transcript, did it?

TR: Stirring up the mob about the mob action when the yo-yo was at its lowest. The Levite now stirs them up with the yo-yo at its pinnacle of moral outrage . . .

Judges 20:8, 11

⁸And all the people arose as one man, saying, “None of us will go to his tent, and none of us will return to his house.”

¹¹So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one man.

ESV

31

READ SLIDE

-- The tribes wouldn't be unified like this throughout the time of the Judges.

TR: The charges are brought to the tribe of Benjamin to send out the guilty parties . . .

Judges 20:12b-13

“What evil is this that has taken place among you? ¹³Now therefore give up the men, the worthless fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and purge evil from Israel.” But the Benjaminites would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the people of Israel.

 - “How far will you go to protect someone you love?”
 - We are tempted to twist Scripture and say that we are “LOVING UNCONDITIONALLY.”
 - Our answer betrays if we love God to such a degree that it looks like we hate our father, mother, sister, and brother.
 - Remember, that comes from Jesus.
 - The rest of the tribes now inquire of Yahweh concerning attacking the army of the tribe of Benjamin.
- TR: They would have inquired of . . .

-- Two battles end with large losses for the 11 tribes.

-- They inquire a third time with fasting and sacrifices and the LORD tells them to go up one more time and that He would give them victory.

TR: Before we move on, remember who has the High Priest, as we read earlier . . .

Judges 20:27-28a

For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

ESV

- Did the tribes think back to the account of Phinehas and the plague brought on by the sexual sin with the Midianites?
- Did this memory stir up the mob mentality?
- Did the zeal to do the right thing morph into an unrighteous anger?

Judges 20:46-47

So all who fell that day of Benjamin were 25,000 men who drew the sword, all of them men of valor.
⁴⁷But 600 men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon and remained at the rock of Rimmon four months.

39

... all but 600 men of the army of Benjamin fell.

TR: With victory theirs, there should have been someone to say, "That's enough." But there wasn't a king and everyone was doing what was right in their own eyes.

Judges 20:48

And the men of Israel turned back against the people of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, the city, men and beasts and all that they found. And all the towns that they found they set on fire.

Our culture can allow a mob mentality to excuse the most perverse actions of degradation.

-- From the horrors of rape, sex trafficking, giving ourselves over to sexual perversion . . .

-- . . . we see it in our culture. And in the church.

-- But we must guard against the yo-yo knee jerk of doing “an around-the-world” and overreacting.

-- Angry and attacking posts in social media that rival cutting up a concubine is not what God has called us to.

-- The USA is not the kingdom of God. The role of government is to punish and restrain evil and promote good. We should seek to influence our government.

-- But the overreaction is filled with anger and bile is not what we are called to as citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven.

TR: THE THIRD MOVEMENT that yo-yo believers tend to manifest is modeled in the last of our chapters.

-- We all have over-reacted at some time. And the result of our slash and burn methods has resulted in devastation that brings us to weeping.

-- Some of us have done this in our personal relationships with our friends and family.

-- The answer is not to try to figure out some way to get around the consequences and even our "vows."

-- If we've messed up, the answer is to own it, repent, ask for forgiveness, and then manifest the fruits of repentance.
