SEEKING

Him

EXPERIENCING THE JOY OF PERSONAL REVIVAL

- 1 You, LORD, showed favor to your land;
you restored the fortunes of Jacob.
- 2 You forgave the iniquity of your people
and covered all their sins.
- 3 You withdrew all your fury
and turned from your burning anger.
- 4 Restore us, O God of our salvation,
and cause your indignation toward us to cease.
- 5 Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you prolong your anger to all generations?

6 Will you not Yourself revive us again,
that your people may rejoice in You?

7 Show us your lovingkindness, O LORD,
and grant us your salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will say; For He will speak peace to his people, to his godly ones—but let them not turn back to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

- 10 Lovingkindness and truth have met together;
righteousness and peace kissed each other.
- 11 Truth springs from the earth,
and righteousness looks down from heaven.
- 12 Indeed the LORD will give what is good,
and our land will yield its harvest.
- 13 Righteousness will go before him
and prepares the way for his steps.

We can break this Psalm in three parts:

Vv 1-3 is a grateful remembrance of God's past mercies.

Vv 4-7 is an honest confession of present spiritual distress and a yearning for revival.

Vv 8-13 is the hopeful expectation of what spiritual renewal can mean for the future of God's people.

Complacency
is the deadly enemy
of spiritual progress.
The contented soul is
a stagnant soul

A landscape painting depicting a sunset or sunrise over a valley. The sky is a mix of deep blue, teal, and yellow, with soft, wispy clouds. The foreground shows a valley with rolling hills and a river or stream, all rendered in a soft, painterly style. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

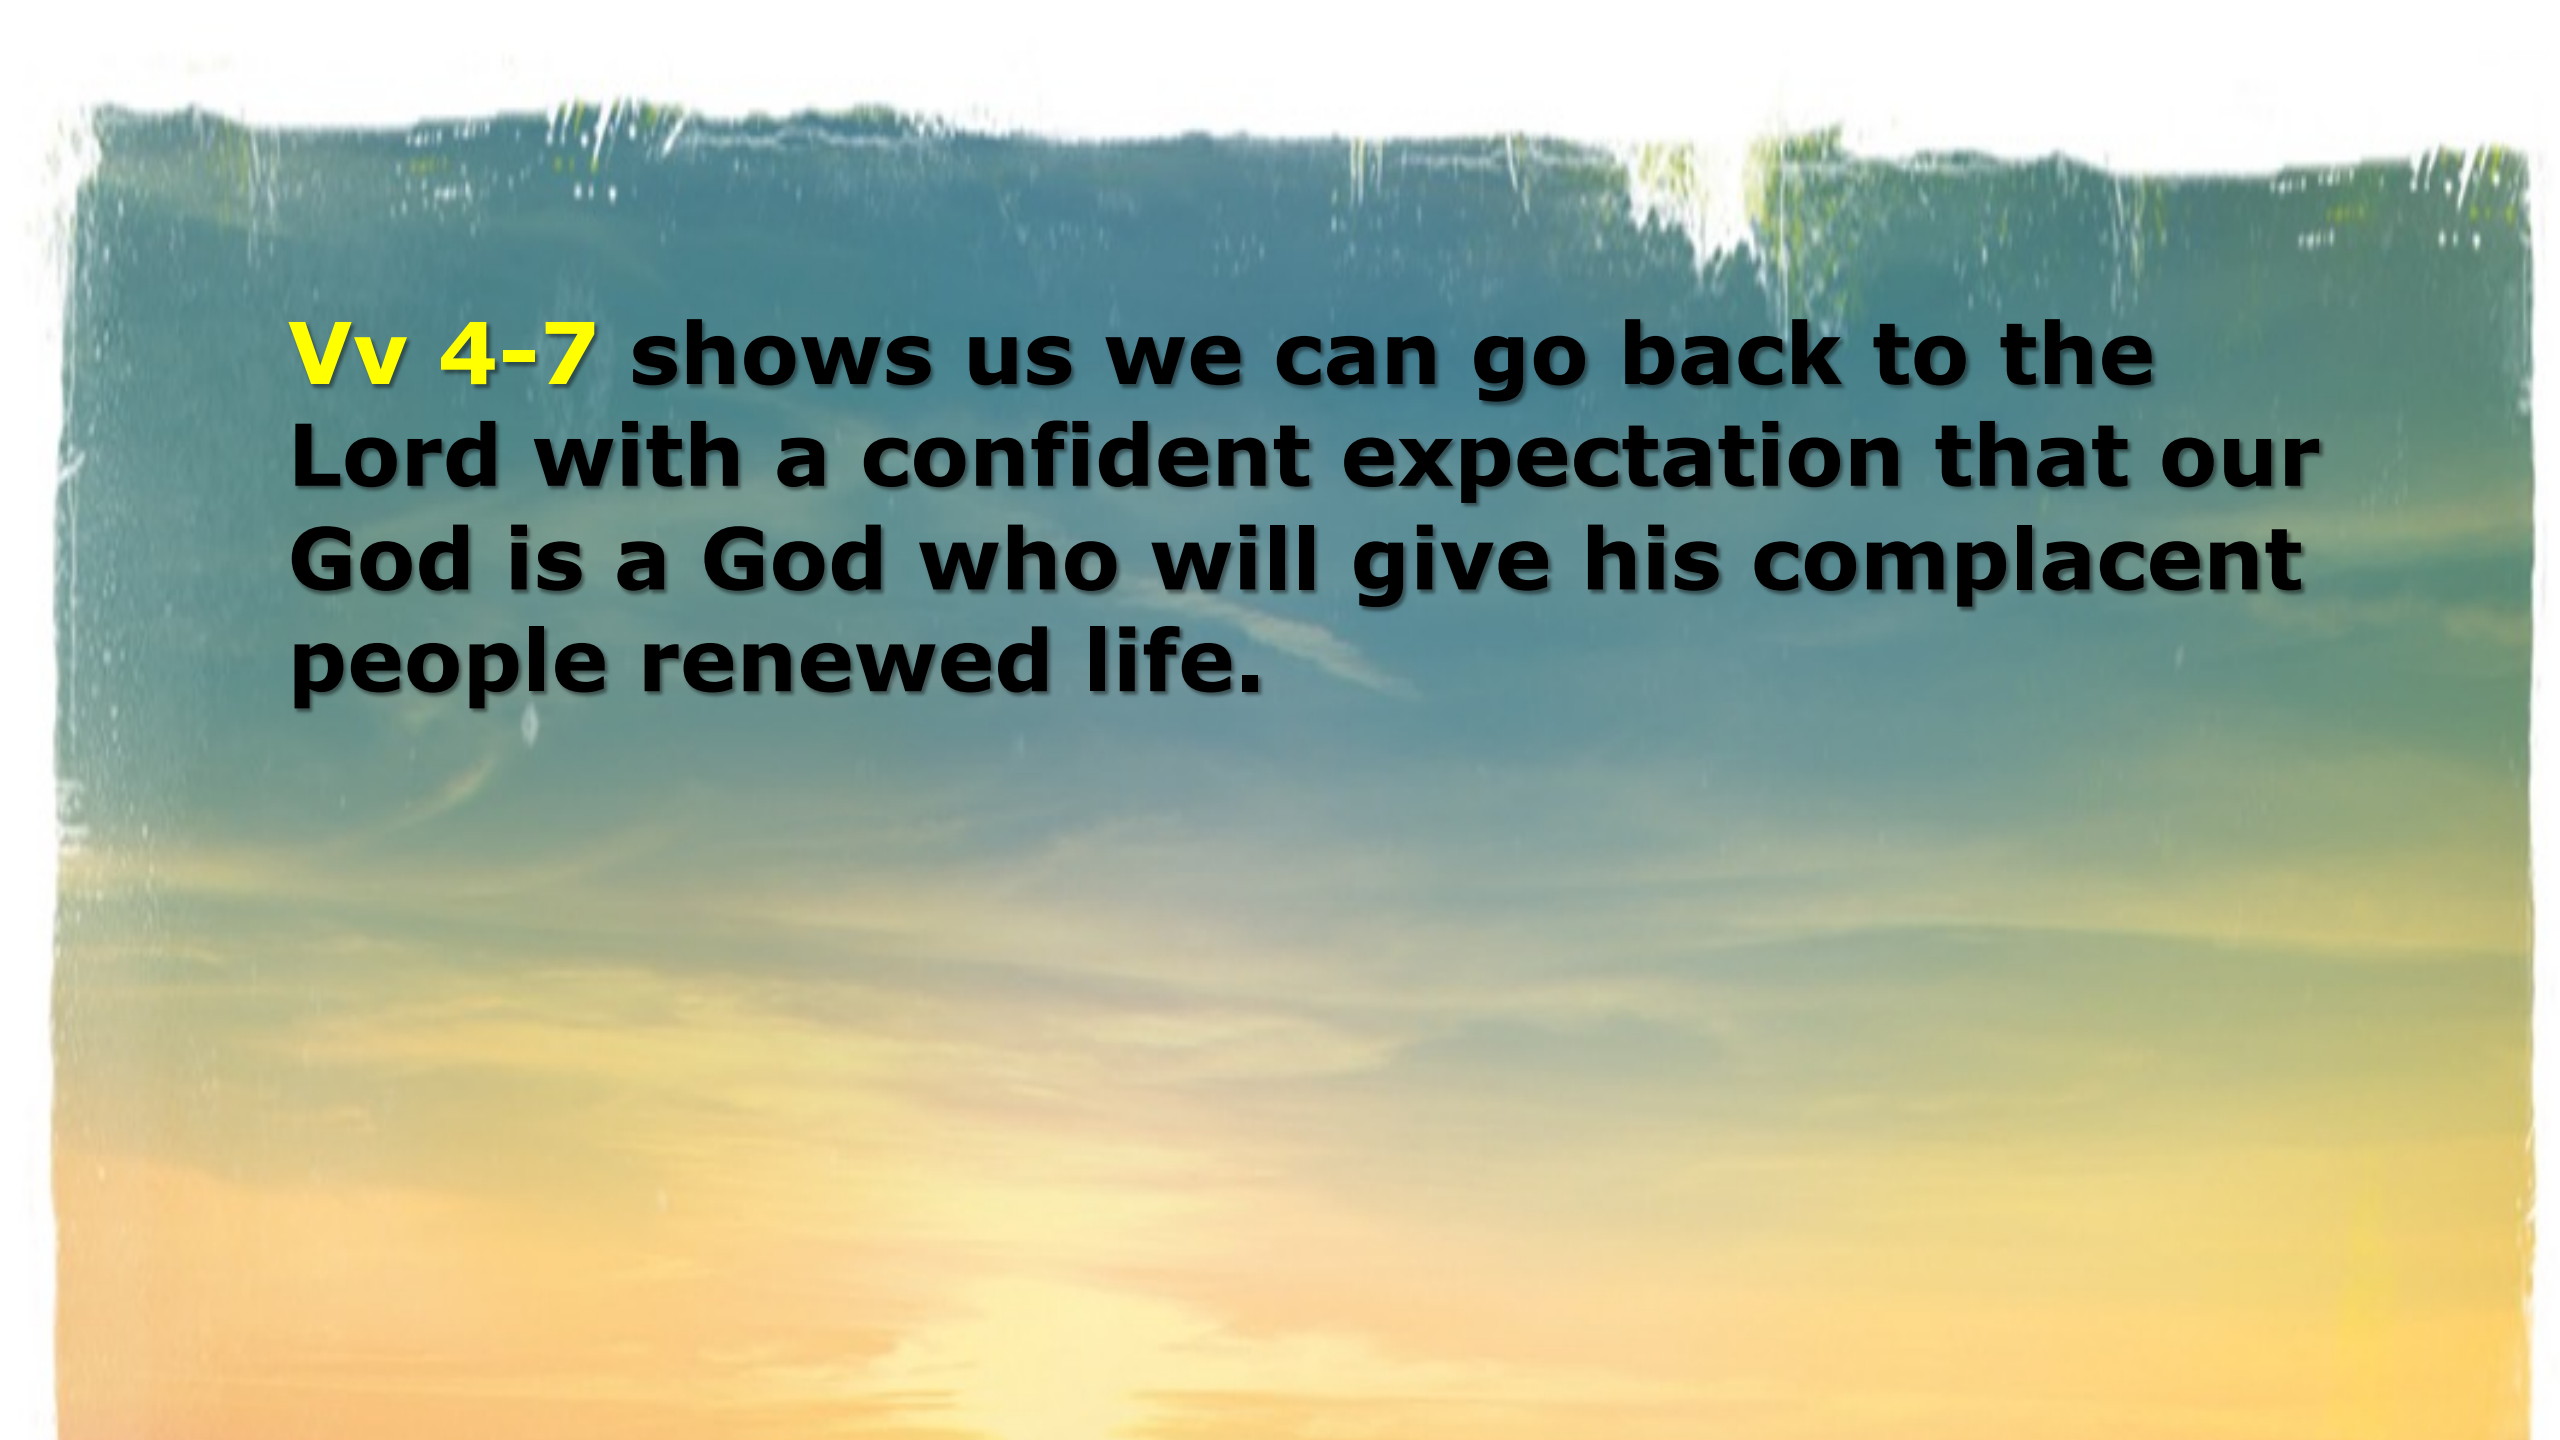

Vv 1-3 there is a looking back and a grateful remembrance of God's past mercies.

¹ You, LORD, showed favor to your land;
you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

² You forgave the iniquity of your people
and covered all their sins.

³ You withdrew all your fury; You turned away from your burning anger.

Vv 4-7 shows us we can go back to the Lord with a confident expectation that our God is a God who will give his complacent people renewed life.

⁵ Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you prolong your anger to all generations?

⁶ Will you not Yourself revive us again,
that your people may rejoice in You?

⁷ Show us your lovingkindness, O LORD,
and grant us your salvation.

“Set our sails to catch
the wind of heaven,
when God chooses to blow upon His people
once again.”

G. Morgan Campbell:

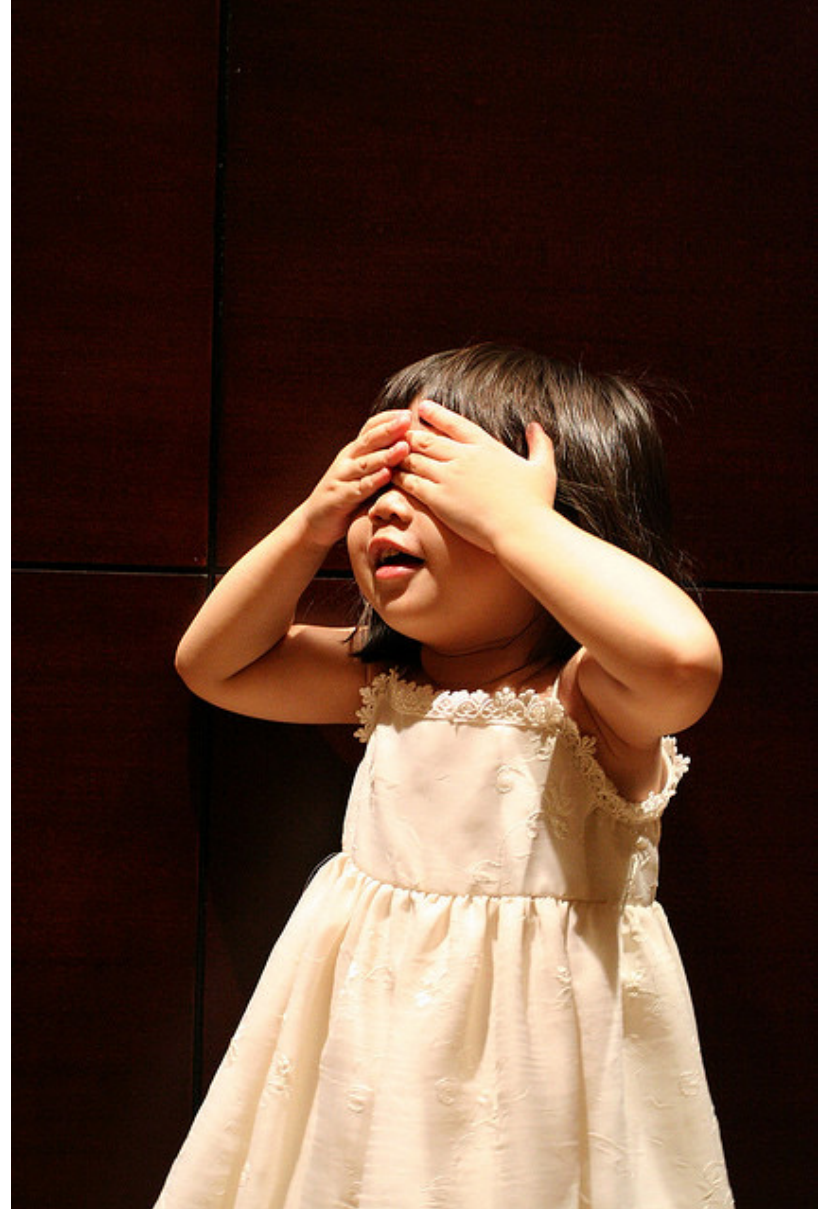

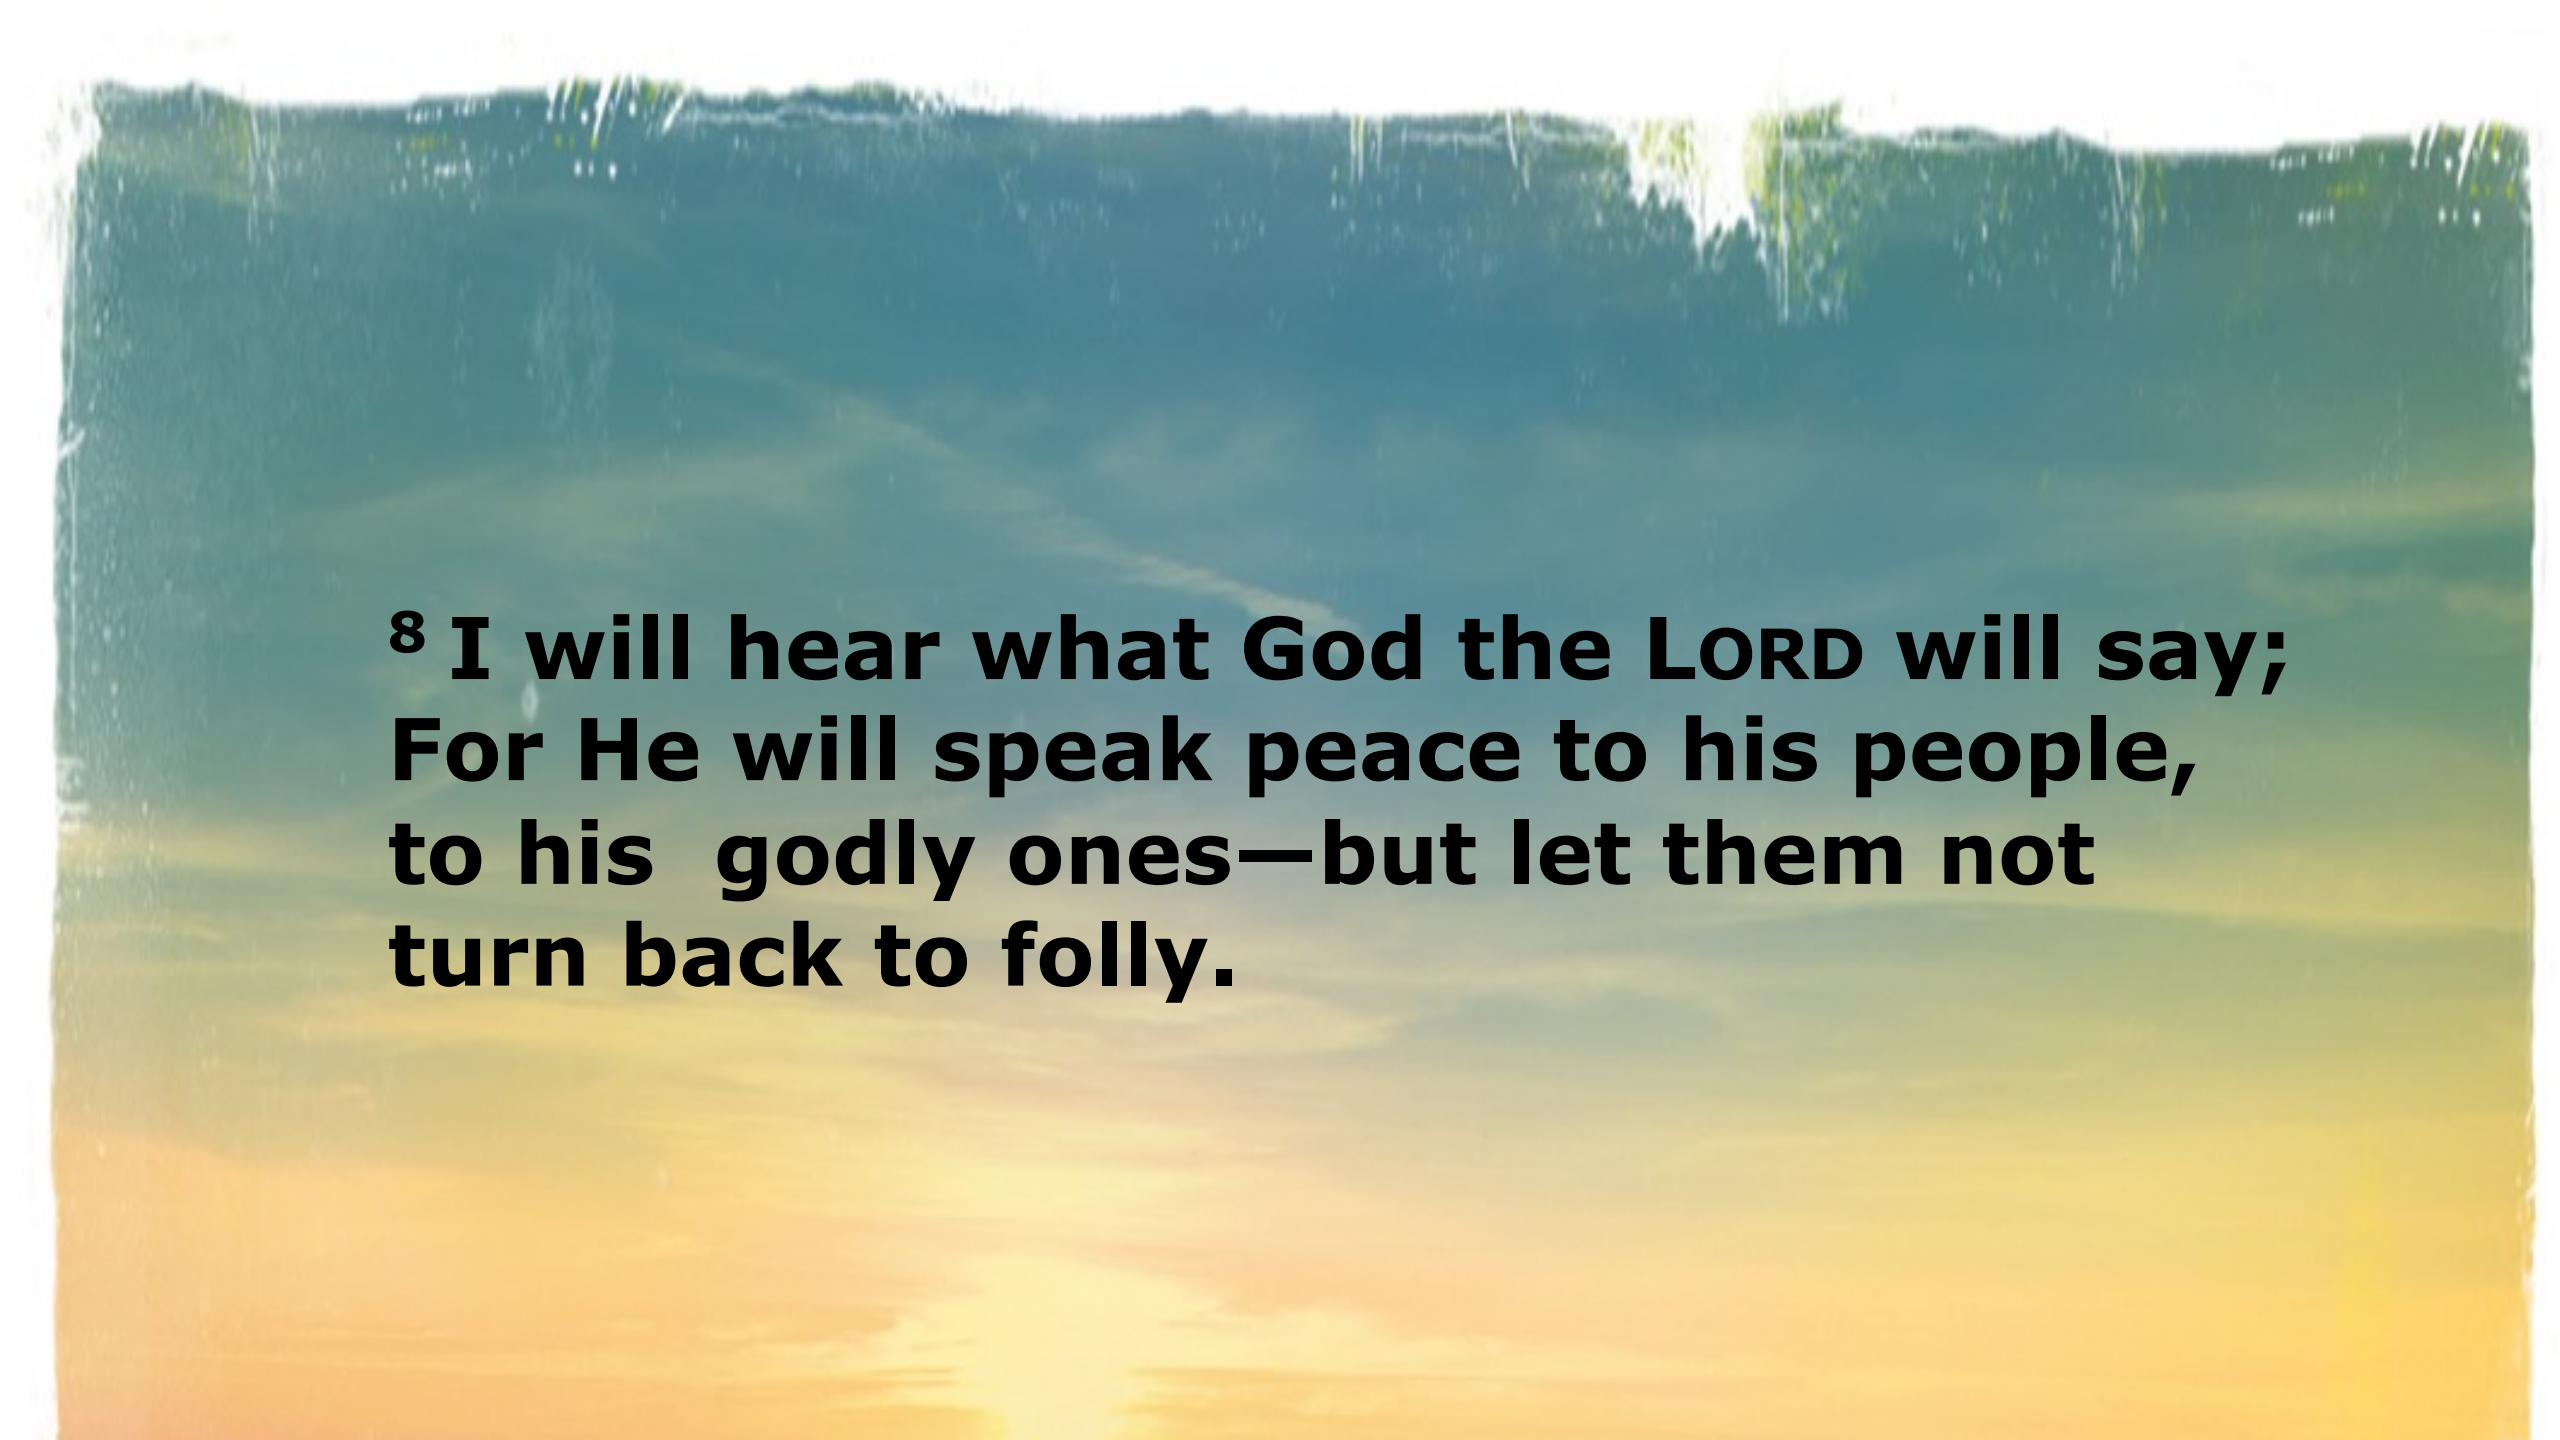

Verse 6:

“So, your people will rejoice in You”

"You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

Jeremiah 29:13

⁸ I will hear what God the LORD will say;
For He will speak peace to his people,
to his godly ones—but let them not turn back to folly.
