<sup>36</sup> When one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table.

<sup>37</sup> A woman in that town who lived a sinful life learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, so she came there with an alabaster jar of perfume. <sup>38</sup> As she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears.

Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.

<sup>39</sup> When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner.”

“If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner.”

40 Jesus answered him,
“Simon, I have something to tell you.”
“Tell me, teacher,” he said.

41 “Two people owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

42 Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he forgave the debts of both.

Now which of them will love him more?"

43 Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven."

"You have judged correctly," Jesus said.

44 Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman?"

“There’s more grace and forgiveness in Jesus’s little finger than there is sin in the vilest sinner.”

“I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.

<sup>45</sup> You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet.

<sup>46</sup> You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet.”

“Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—as her great love has shown. But whoever has been forgiven little loves little.”
48 Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven...
Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

will never thirst. – that's Grace

Jesus said to her, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband." – that's Truth

In his book “The Grace and Truth Paradox,” Randy Alcorn writes:

“Truth without Grace breeds a self-righteous legalism that poisons the church and pushes the world away from Christ. Grace without Truth breeds moral indifference and keeps people from seeing their need for Christ. It’s not enough for us to offer Grace or Truth. We must offer both.”

"There is none righteous,
no, not one...
All have sinned and fall
short of the glory of God."

“The wages of sin is death,
but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

“confess with your mouth
Jesus as Lord and believe in your heart God raised him from the dead and you will be saved.”
