FIVE ESSENTIAL PRACTICES FOR LEADERS TO MULTIPLY LEADERS

1. Jesus Started with the Few, Not the Many

“Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach and to have authority to drive out demons.” Mark 3:13-15

2 Timothy 2:2

“The things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others.”

2 Timothy 2:2

“The things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others.”

Paul → Timothy → faithful people → others also

“Who are the few people God has placed in my life that I can intentionally invest in?”

2. Jesus Prioritized Relationship Over Curriculum

“Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach and to have authority to drive out demons.” Mark 3:13-15

2. Jesus Prioritized Relationship Over Curriculum

“Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach and to have authority to drive out demons.” Mark 3:13-15

“Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent time with them.” John 3:22

3. Jesus Focused on Sending, Not Just Gathering

“Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach and to have authority to drive out demons.” Mark 3:13-15

Go make disciples.

Matthew 28:18-20

4. Jesus Gave Away Authority Instead of Holding onto It

“Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach and to have authority to drive out demons.” Mark 3:13-15
