Esther 4:13-14 (NIV)

He sent back this answer: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape. For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

1. What was one insight about your generation—or another generation—that challenged or surprised you?
2. If you could ask someone from a different generation one question, what would it be?
3. If you could bring back one thing from the generation you grew up in, what would it be?
4. What do you think older generations need from younger generations? What do you think younger generations need from older generations?
5. What else did God say to you through this message?
