1. Jesus repeatedly tells the churches in Revelation, "I know." If Jesus looked "under the hood" of your spiritual life right now, what do you think He would celebrate—and what might He say needs attention?
2. Revelation 3:2 says, "Wake up!" What are some warning lights that can indicate we are becoming spiritually asleep or drifting from Jesus? Which one is easiest for you to ignore?
3. "Prophecy should produce preparation, not panic." How should knowing that Jesus is returning change the way you live today—in your relationships, priorities, mission, or walk with God?
4. Revelation begins by showing us Jesus—alive, victorious, and among His churches. What situation in your life is tempting you toward fear right now, and what would it look like to "Don't be afraid. Be faithful." in that situation this week?
5. What else did God say to you through this message?
