1. If you knew you had one year left to live, what would change about the way you're living right now—and what probably wouldn't change?
2. Why do you think it's so easy to live as though this life is all there is, even when we say we believe in eternity?
3. What do you hope people remember about the way you lived your life? What does your answer reveal about what matters most to you?
4. Who is one person you would desperately want to know Jesus before your life—or theirs—was over? What could taking one intentional step toward that person look like this week?
5. What else did God say to you through this message?
