1. Where do you think people tend to see spiritual warfare where it isn't—or miss it where it actually is?
2. What is one lie you have been tempted to believe that could become a "stronghold" if you continue living as though it is true?
3. Of the three weapons—The Name of Jesus, The Blood of Jesus, and The Word of God—which do you most need to better understand and use in your everyday life? Why?
4. Submit yourself to God. Close any open doors. Confront the enemy. Which of these three needs your attention right now, and what would taking action actually look like this week?
5. What else did God say to you through this message?
