But you are to proclaim things consistent with sound teaching. Older men are to be self-controlled, worthy of respect, sensible, and sound in faith, love, and endurance. In the same way, older women are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not slaves to excessive drinking.

They are to teach what is good, so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands and to love their children, to be self-controlled, pure, workers at home, kind, and in submission to their husbands, so that God's word will not be slandered.

5

In the same way, encourage the young men to be self-controlled in everything. Make yourself an example of good works with integrity and dignity in your teaching.

6

Your message is to be sound beyond reproach, so that any opponent will be ashamed, because he doesn't have anything bad to say about us.

7

Slaves are to submit to their masters in everything, and to be well-pleasing, not talking back or stealing, but demonstrating utter faithfulness, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Savior in everything.

Followers of Jesus live as people whose beliefs are believable.

Our faith is not hidden in private convictions but embodied in public character.

11

The gospel in us is always being evaluated in public.

12

The gospel forms a disciple-making community that impacts the world.

13

Self-control is one way the gospel becomes believable.

14

Self-control is Spirit-enabled restraint ordered toward love and holiness.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. The law is not against such things. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit.

How might you live a life consistent with what you say you believe?

Through the power and wisdom of the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit.

Through the power of gospel-centered relationships.

19

Where might the Holy Spirit be inviting you to bring alignment between what you believe and how you live?

20

Where is my faith most visible - and where is it most hidden?

21

Who is forming me - and who am I forming?

22

Where do my desires need the Holy Spirit's guidance and restraint?

23

If someone were to follow me for a week, would the gospel be more or less believable?
