Now after the Sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

8 Group

And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.

9

And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said.

10

Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you."

11

So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!"

12

And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."
Matthew 28v1-10 (CSB)

13

Hope is hard to come by when you face significant loss.

14

Jesus' resurrection gives us hope in the face of our greatest loss.

15

Hope is hard to come by when you face significant fear.

16

Jesus' resurrection gives us hope in the face of our greatest fear.

17

Hope is found in the face of the risen Jesus!

18

If you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

19

One believes with the heart, resulting in righteousness, and one confesses with the mouth, resulting in salvation.

20

For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame, since there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, because the same Lord of all richly blesses all who call on him.

21

For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.
Romans 10v9-13 (CSB)
