

The background of the image is a photograph of the interior of Antelope Canyon. The walls are made of smooth, undulating sandstone that has been eroded into flowing, wave-like patterns. The lighting is warm and golden, highlighting the textures and curves of the rock. A bright blue sky is visible through the narrow opening at the top of the canyon.

WHAT STORY ARE YOU TELLING YOURSELF IN THE WAITING?

How long, Lord? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
How long will I store up anxious concerns
within me,
agony in my mind every day?
How long will my enemy dominate me?

Consider me and answer, Lord my God.
Restore brightness to my eyes;
otherwise, I will sleep in death.
My enemy will say, "I have triumphed over him,"
and my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.

But I have trusted in your faithful love;
my heart will rejoice in your deliverance.
I will sing to the Lord
because he has treated me generously.

PSALM 126v5

BECAUSE JESUS ENTERED
OUR SUFFERING, GOD'S SILENCE IS NEVER GOD'S ABSENCE

Therefore we do not give up. Even though our outer person is being destroyed, our inner person is being renewed day by day. For our momentary light affliction is producing for us an absolutely incomparable eternal weight of glory. So we do not focus on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.
