2025_8_10 Zechariah

In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:

4 Group

“The LORD was extremely angry with your ancestors. So tell the people, ‘This is what the LORD of Armies says: Return to me—this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies—and I will return to you, says the LORD of Armies.

5

Do not be like your ancestors; the earlier prophets proclaimed to them: This is what the LORD of Armies says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds. But they did not listen or pay attention to me—this is the LORD's declaration.

6

Where are your ancestors now? And do the prophets live forever? But didn't my words and my statutes that I commanded my servants the prophets overtake your ancestors?"

7

So the people repented and said, "As the LORD of Armies decided to deal with us for our ways and our deeds, so he has dealt with us."

Because God's promises are certain, the most rational thing you can do is live as if they are already true.

12

Trust God's character.

13

Trust is believing that Jesus is competent to run my life and the world.

14

Participate in the with-God life.

15

Obedience is saying yes to the next thing Jesus asks of you.

16

Cultivate hopeful endurance.

17

What would you do differently today if you knew for certain God's kingdom was coming, in its fullness, tomorrow?

18

Because God's promises are certain, the most rational thing you can do is live as if they are already true.
