WHAT CHILD IS THIS?

For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given;
and the government shall be upon his shoulder,
and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and of peace
there will be no end,
on the throne of David and over his kingdom,
to establish it and to uphold it
with justice and with righteousness
from this time forth and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Isaiah 9v6-7 (ESV)

Jesus is forever our present Father.

Jesus is eternal in his nature.

Before the mountains were born, before you gave birth to the earth and the world, from eternity to eternity, you are God.

Psalm 90v2

To the only God, our savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority before all time and now and forever.

Jude 25

Infinity + 1 =

$\text{Infinity} + 1 = \text{Infinity}$

But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

2 Peter 3:8

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Hebrews 13:8

Jesus is - God with us - as Father.

He is not far from each one of us. For in him we live and move and have our being. As some of your own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.'

Acts 17v27-28

“And I will be a Father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to me,” says the Lord Almighty.

2 Corinthians 6v18

The one who conquers will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son.

Revelation 21v7

In the same way we also, when we were children, were in slavery under the elements of the world. When the time came to completion, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba, Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then God has made you an heir.

Galatians 4v3-7
