3. Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you?
4. You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone.
5. You show that you are Christ's letter, delivered by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God—not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.
6. Such is the confidence we have through Christ before God. It is not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God.
7. He has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.
2 Cor 3v1-6 (CSB)
8. Your life is a living letter sent into the world to tell of Jesus.
9. One of the ways you can understand your story is by looking through the lens of critical incidents: blessedness and brokenness.
10. As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive.
Genesis 50v20 (CSB)
11. Have you unknowingly allowed the our society's worldview to edit the letter God is writing through your life?
12. Your life is a living letter sent into the world to tell of Jesus.
13. Only Jesus can rightly interpret your story.
14. How can I practically reflect with the help of the Holy Spirit on my story?
