To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind (gracious) to the unthankful and evil. Therefore be merciful (compassionate), just as your Father also is merciful.

Luke 6:37: Judge not, and you shall not be judged.
Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned.

And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work.
