

(The Boundaries of an Ambassador— 2 Corinthians 6:14-7:1)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- How do we both in this world, but not of it? What boundaries should we have in our lives as believers?
- How do we know when we are associating with the darkness rather than the light? How can we discern what is influencing us most in life?
- What kinds of things compromise our Christian witness? How can we help one another place proper boundaries in our lives?
- What does it mean to be unequally yoked to unbelievers? What kinds of activities or relationships are forbidden for believers?
- Is there anything that particularly stood out to you from the sermon?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- What makes Christians different from others? Why does God call us to live differently than those who do not believe in God?
- What kinds of boundaries should we have in our lives so that we don't fall in love with worldly things?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.
2 Corinthians 7:1(ESV)
