

(The God Who Makes All Things New Part 2— 2 Corinthians 5:19-21)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- What does it mean to be an ambassador for Christ? Think about the various spheres of life: work, home, kid's activities, ministries, hobbies, etc.
- Paul implores the church to be reconciled to God. How can we help those around us be reconciled to God? How can we explain reconciliation to an unbeliever?
- How does our reconciliation to God impact how we relate to others? Are there any relationships in your life that are strained? How can you be an ambassador for Christ in that relationship?
- Is there anything that particularly stood out to you from the sermon?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- What is an ambassador? What does it mean to be an ambassador for Jesus?
- What does it mean that Jesus who knew no sin became sin for us? How does Jesus save us?

WEEKLY PRAYER

- Those who do not yet have a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus (Col 4:2-4)

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.
2 Corinthians 5:20-21(ESV)
