Make the Connection

1. In what ways are you experiencing connection here at Benton?
2. What inspires, excites, and encourages you in this passage? Is there anything in these verses that makes you leery, suspicious, or uncomfortable?
3. There seemed to be a balance in the early church between being “in the temple” and “from house to house” (2:46-47). How might this serve as an example for us?
4. Is it important to spend time with a group of recognizable followers of Jesus both in corporate worship (in the temple courts) and in a more intimate setting (from house to house)? Why or why not?
5. What do you personally, naturally, desire most in your church experience; the apostle’s teaching, fellowship, breaking of bread, or prayers? Why?
6. Is there one of these devotions you shy away from? Why do you think this is?
7. How would you describe your experience of the church meeting together on Sunday mornings? Boring, mediocre, engaging?
8. How much of your experience is your responsibility, and is formed by the preparation of your heart for our worship time together?
9. Is the Holy Spirit nudging you to enter church life in a way you haven’t before?
