

A Crazy Accusation

Response Questions Mark 3:20-21, 31-35

1. What caused Jesus' family to come see Him?
2. What did His family intend to do and why?
3. Review chapter 2 and 3 asking, "What could have led Jesus' family to their conclusion about Jesus?"
4. What have you done, because of your faith, that caused others to think you also were 'out of your mind'?
5. Describe some things that make "family relationships" special and set apart from co-workers and acquaintances.
6. Jesus says, "Here are my mother and brothers." What does He mean?
  - a. How does this challenge the traditional definition of family?
7. How do we apply this redefining of family to our lives today? What are some practical implications that come from viewing "faith relationships" on par with family relationships?