

Response Questions
January 15, 2023 | Ezekiel 4:1-5:17

1. Can you describe a time when the seriousness of your sin had brought about a restoration of grace?
2. What was the point of Ezekiel's clay siege model in verses 4:1-3?
 - a) What did it communicate about the future of Jerusalem?
 - b) What does it communicate about the consequences of sin?
3. Have you ever found yourself "under siege" because of your own sin?
4. How do we know that Ezekiel's public actions were not like the pagan curses enacted in very similar ways?
5. What was the point of Ezekiel's culinary display in verses 4:9-17?
 - a) What did it communicate about the future of Jerusalem?
 - b) What does it communicate about the consequences of sin?
6. What was the point of Ezekiel's "hair cut" in chapter 5?
 - a) What did it communicate about the future of Jerusalem?
 - b) What does it communicate about the consequences of sin?
7. Can you identify any hardness of heart or hardening to sin that you need to confess that requires repentance and restoration?