The Power of the Resurrection

1. How are you different because Jesus is alive? What do you think your life might be like without the power of the resurrection?
2. In verses 1-2, Peter describes the readers and hearers of his letter by their identity. What words does he use to describe their identity? What strikes you about their (and therefore our) identity?
3. How do we access the power of the resurrection? What does that look like? How do you know that you know?
4. What causes you to believe that you are “born again”?
5. What three characteristics does Peter give to describe our living hope?
6. What two things come to us by the power of the resurrection?
7. What do we expect to experience in the future by the power of the resurrection?
8. How does the knowledge of our future impact us even now? How does this change how you live this next week?
