Uncommon Sense Concerning Family

1. What is something you learned about family life (good or bad; wise or foolish) from your parents?
2. We often think financial and material provisions are the ways to bless our families most. What do Proverbs 14:26 and 20:7 say is of great importance for healthy family life? Why do you think this godly lifestyle (both in private and public spheres) is so important for a family to thrive?
3. Proverbs 18:22 and 19:14 tell men they should recognize that their wives are a gift from the Lord. In the wider context of family relationships, how can you demonstrate to your loved ones, that you value them as gifts from the Lord?
4. How do each of the following proverbs apply to family life? Proverbs 10:12, 11:17, 13:10, 15:18, 20:22.
5. How would your family life improve if you became more like what you discussed in the verses from question four? How will you successfully work toward this?
