November 27, 2022 | 1 Peter 1:17-21

1. Is there anyone in your life that has had such an impact on you that how you live out your life now (your behaviour) is different?
2. How do you process the concept of the fear of the Lord in the framework of grace?
3. Peter describes your former way of life as empty. What did that look like for you? How does verse 14 help us to understand this?
4. According to verse 21, how long have you been on God's mind? What has he done to demonstrate this to you? Is this real to both your mind and heart?
5. On Sunday four motivations for holiness were highlighted in verses 17-21:
 - a) You call God "Father"
 - b) You are a sojourner here on earth
 - c) You are redeemed
 - d) This is God's design for you

Which of these resonates most deeply with you?

6. What are some ways you need to live differently this week in pursuit of holiness?
