Nehemiah 4:1–6 (ESV)

When ridicule and mockery rise, resist trying to win the argument; instead pray and keep on building.

Nehemiah 4:14–16; 20 (ESV)

In the face of escalating opposition, pray as people who trust God and prepare as people who understand the mission.

Nehemiah 6:1–4 (ESV)

Resist allowing distraction to disrupt progress by refusing to abandon your role and assignment.

Nehemiah 6:8–9 (ESV)

When opposition becomes overwhelming and depletes energy and strength, ask God to renew your strength.

Nehemiah 6:15–16 (ESV)

The greatest response to persistent opposition is persistent faithfulness and a resolve to finish the work.

Nehemiah 4:6 (ESV)

When opposition says stop, renewed people keep building.
