Mark 10:47–48 (ESV)

Matthew 9:36 (ESV)

Caring requires us to NOTICE.

We cannot care for people if we are focusing solely on ourselves.

Caring requires us to STOP.

We cannot care for people if we are never willing to be inconvenienced by people.

Caring requires us to RESPOND.

We cannot care for people if we are not willing to respond.

Galatians 6:9–10 (ESV)

When we see interruptions as opportunities, caring becomes a way of life.
