Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." And He who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also He said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." And He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment. The one who conquers will have this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be My son."

The Silent Prayer

O Lord of life, who dwells in eternity, and who has planted in our hearts the faith and hope which look beyond our mortal life to another, even a heavenly country: We give thanks to You this day for the bright shining light of immortality in Jesus Christ. As He has shown us the blessedness of heaven on earth, and has called us into a kingdom not of this world, so may our life be made ever richer in the things that do not pass away. Raise us up, we pray, in the power of His Spirit, from the death of sin to the life of righteousness. Prepare us to follow Him, in hope and trust, through the darkness of the grave into the world of light where He has led the way, in the sure and certain hope of eternal life; through Him who is the Resurrection and the Life, even Jesus Christ our Lord.
