Relationships That Can Subvert Our Walk with God

Genesis 6:1–8

Genesis 6:1–8

The Condition of Mankind Before the Flood

"...every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually."

Genesis 6:5

Three views on who the "sons of God" were:

The Bottom Line

Whichever view we hold — the cause of the Flood is the same:

Complete human corruption through the abandonment of relationship with God.

Except Noah.

Relationship to Things

1. Relationship to Things — Any "Thing" We Trust Instead of God

Isaiah 44:1-20

A craftsman carves an idol from the same tree he uses to warm himself and bake his bread — then bows down to it and says, "Deliver me, for you are my god."

We may not carve it ourselves — but we work to buy it, we trust it, and we look down on those who don't have it.

We may not carve it ourselves — but we work to buy it, we trust it, and we look down on those who don't have it.

The craftsman who carves an idol is telling the God who created and sustains him: "No thank you, God — I prefer this log."

Probably not yet — but already relatable to us as a being:

Already Relatable to Us as a Being

Probably not a being yet — but consider:

We're polite to it — Sam Altman confirmed "tens of millions" in extra electricity just from people saying please and thank you.

It acts as a companion — Companion apps engineer emotional attachment. When Replika changed its features, users described grief and bereavement.

Shall we?

Paul at the Areopagus

Acts 17:22–31

"In him we live and move and have our being."

*The God who made the world does not live in temples made by man —
He gives to all mankind life, breath, and everything.
He is actually not far from each one of us.*

Close your eyes. Quieten your heart.
