(Vs 25) “O
foolish ones,
and slow of heart to believe all that
the prophets
have spoken!”

“foolish ones:” ἀνόητος (anoētos):
foolish, senseless, inconsiderate,
unintelligent, unwise

“slow of heart:” βραδύς (bradus) [of]
καρδία (kardia)

They aren't where they were supposed to be physically, headed on the road to Emmaus, but more importantly, they aren't where they are supposed to be in their faith. Their hearts were not quick to trust Jesus.

They were slow to allow their belief to become more than a hope for redemption, but full trust in a person.
