

Home is a Place of Refuge

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Psalm 91:1-2

Home is a place of dwelling. Oftentimes when people call for help, the first question is "where are you?" The same thing applies in life, when you're in situations that are not good for you look around and ask yourself if you're still under the shadow. You have to abide in Him and dwell in Him to experience the benefit of His refuge. But trust that His refuge is available to you and God desires to protect and defend you.

A s k Y o u r s e l f

1. Where am I? Am I still abiding under the shadow?
2. In what areas do I need help and refuge?

A f f i r m a t i o n

With God I am safe. With God I am covered. The shadow in the valley is no match for the shadow where I reside. I abide in God. I dwell in the secret place. I am safe with God.
