

Bystander, week 2: Nic at Night
John 3:1-15 and 19:39-42

1. What parts of your life feel particularly upside down right now?
2. When is the last time you felt completely disoriented? What happened to make you feel that way?
3. Read John 3:1-4. What was so confusing about this conversation?
4. Read John 3:5-15. How does the conversation start to make more sense?
5. What did it take (or would it take) for you to believe in Jesus as the Savior of the world?
6. What are some things you learned in your darkest or most difficult moments that you didn't realize you were learning until they had passed?
7. What are some things God is teaching you or showing you right now?
