

The Last Kingdom
Week four - "What If…"
1 Timothy 6:3-19
Bottom line: What if life in the Kingdom of God is the only life that is truly life?

1. We often want God to bless our plans and desires, rather than inviting us into a new way of life. Where do you see that tension in your own life?
2. What does "godliness with contentment" look like in a season when you're longing for more – more money, time, opportunity, faith, or peace?
3. Paul warns against putting our hope in wealth because it is uncertain. What helps you place your hope in God instead?
4. In 1 Timothy 6:11–12, Paul tells Timothy to pursue righteousness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. Which of these qualities feels most important for you to pursue right now, and why?
5. The Kingdom of God is a "whole new world" that changes how we live our days and the stories our families tell. What might change in your everyday priorities if you saw yourself as a citizen of that Kingdom?
6. Paul connects generosity with "the life that is truly life." What is one way you could use your time, abilities, or resources to bless someone else?
7. What kind of faith and priorities do you hope the next generation will see in your life?
