

Questioning Jesus
Week four - "I'm Drowning"
Mark 4:35-41
Bottom line: Jesus cares enough to act and to comfort, which changes how we navigate life's storms.

1. When have you experienced a "storm" in life that arrived suddenly and left you feeling overwhelmed or afraid?
2. The disciples ask, "Don't you care if we drown?" What makes this question feel honest or relatable in times of hardship?
3. Jesus was asleep during the storm, yet he was still present in the boat. How does God's presence differ from God immediately fixing a difficult situation?
4. Jesus both calmed the storm and comforted the disciples. In your current season, do you most need God's comfort, God's intervention, or both? Why?
5. Jesus asks the disciples, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?" How can this be an invitation to grow rather than a condemnation for feeling fear?
6. What does this story reveal about Jesus' authority? How does knowing that he has power over what we cannot control change the way we face uncertainty?
7. The disciples end by asking, "Who is this?" What is one aspect of Jesus' character you are seeing more clearly through this passage?
