

Blessed are the Spiraling

Week three - "Unconditional Love"

Luke 15:11-32

Bottom line: We're not worthy, but we are wanted.

1. Read Luke 15:11-32
 - a. What stands out to you in this familiar story?
 - b. How do you identify with the younger brother?
 - c. How do you identify with the older brother?
2. Have you ever felt like you weren't worthy of something? What was it, and why do you think you felt that way?
3. How have you perhaps felt unworthy of God's love?
4. How does the picture Jesus paints of God looking for us from afar and running toward us change, or not change, your view of God?
5. What does it mean to say that we are not worthy, but we are wanted? Be honest, which would you rather be, and why?
6. What would it look like for you to "come home" to God? What is standing in your way or holding you back?
